CJW MEDICAL CENTER

RICHMOND, VA

Excellent OB/Gyn Practice Opportunity in Richmond, Virginia!

CJW Medical Center is recruiting an OB/Gyn to join a private practice located on the Johnston-Willis campus of CJW Medical Center. This is a busy, 11 physician group located in an attractive suburb of Richmond, Virginia. The practice is one of the oldest, most established groups in the area and has an excellent reputation within the community. Other highlights include: - Competitive salary and benefits, - 1st year sign-on bonus and 2nd year production bonus, - Opportunity for partnership after successful completion of ABOG, - 1-in-5 call rotation only covering one hospital.

CJW Medical Center is one of the premier facilities in Central Virginia. We were recently named one of Healthgrades' Top 50 Hospitals. CJW is a 758 bed hospital with two medical campuses and boasts the greatest admission volume in the Richmond Metropolitan Area. The Johnston-Willis campus includes the Thomas Johns Cancer Center and a well-developed Neuroscience and Gamma Knife Center. Additionally, Johnston-Willis has a level III NICU and Gyn Oncology and Perinatal services on site.

Experience a positive, professional work environment in a top tier facility located in one of the most livable cities in America. Richmond, which is the capital of the Commonwealth of Virginia, has a metropolitan population of nearly one million residents. Richmond is a city deep in history, with terrific neighborhoods, museums and festivals year round. The city also boasts the first state-supported art museum in the United States and the Southeast's largest museum, the Virginia Museum of Fine Arts. With easy access to Interstates 95 and 64, Washington, D.C., Virginia's beaches and the Blue Ridge Mountains are only an hour and a half away. In the city you will find a wealth of small-town charm and big-city amenities woven into a landscape catering to all walks of life. The area enjoys four distinct seasons, including one of the most remarkable displays of fall foliage along the Eastern seaboard.

For more information, or to send your C.V. for consideration, please contact: Sherry Chenault, Recruitment Market Manager, 9100 Arboretum Parkway, Suite 140, Richmond, VA 23236, sherry.chenault@hcahealthcare.com, Phone: 866-422-3627, ext. 3, Fax: 866-451-0890

FELLOWSHIP IN FAMILY PLANNING

NATIONWIDE

The Fellowship in Family Planning offers a unique opportunity for post-residency fellowship training in reproductive health for obstetrics and gynecology residents in 17 prestigious universities in the United States.

The objective of the fellowship is to develop specialists focused on research, teaching, reproductive health policy, international health, and clinical practice in contraception and abortion. Working with respected and innovative leaders in the field, fellows receive training in clinical and epidemiologic research, develop clinical and teaching skills, have opportunities to work internationally and connect to a rapidly expanding network of family planning experts. During the two year program, each fellow is funded to complete a Masters of Public Health or Science, an international family planning rotation and an independent research project. The fellowship financial package also includes post-graduate year 5 and 6 salary, loan repayment up to $20,000 per year, and funding for attendance at conferences and workshops.

Since its inception at the University of California, San Francisco in 1992, the fellowship has grown to 17 sites at leading institutions in the United States and has taken the first steps to become a new subspecialty certified by the American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology.

Graduated fellows and directors have established a growing network of family planning specialists who work in academic settings, as international consultants or with organizations focused on family planning services and research.

The Fellowship in Family Planning is currently located at the following institutions: * Boston University, * Columbia University, * Emory University, * Harvard School of Medicine, * Johns Hopkins University, * Northwestern University, * Oregon Health & Sciences University, * Stanford University, * University of California, San Francisco, * University of Chicago* University of Colorado, * University of Illinois at Chicago, *

University of Michigan,* University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, * University of Pittsburgh, * University of Southern California, * Washington University

Please visit our web site, www.familyplanningfellowship.org, for more information regarding the current fellowship sites and our online application process.

MEMORIAL SLOAN KETTERING CANCER CENTER PROGRAM

GYNECOLOGIC ONCOLOGY FELLOWSHIP

Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center offers an approved four-year fellowship that prepares trainees for certification and an academic career in the subspecialty of gynecologic oncology.

The fellowship program is designed within a multidisciplinary setting to provide the most effective education and training for fellows to develop the skills necessary to practice gynecologic oncology. In addition to time spent on the Gynecology Service, rotations are available on the Urology, Colorectal, Gastric & Mixed Tumor, Breast, Nutrition, Radiation Therapy, and Chemotherapy services.

Fellows are responsible for preoperative and postoperative patient care and will perform surgical operations under the direction of an Attending surgeon. Fellows will be asked to help supervise and instruct the residents on the Gynecology Service, as well as gain experience by participating in outpatient clinics, rounds, lectures and weekly treatment planning conferences.

The first year of the fellowship will be dedicated solely to basic science research. The second year is divided between continued basic science with clinical coverage of medical oncology clinics. The third year is comprised of clinical rotations on the Gynecology Service for ten months with two months of elective time spent on the Breast Surgery Service and in Radiation Oncology. In the final year the fellow will rotate for six months on the Gynecology Service and the other six months will be spent rotating on the Colorectal Service (2 months), Department of Urology (1 month), Gastric and Mixed Tumor (1 month), with two months of elective time. Number of Positions: 1 alternating with 2 annually

ELIGIBILITY

Applicants must have completed their core residency training in obstetrics and gynecology prior to beginning the gynecologic oncology fellowship. The residency program should be an approved program in the United States or Canada and applicants must be eligible for certification by the American Board of Obstetrics and Gynecology. Foreign medical graduates with equivalent qualifications are also eligible to apply and must have completed all three of the USMLE examinations.

REQUIREMENTS

Applicants are asked to provide three letters of recommendation (one of which must be from the Program Director), a personal statement, and USMLE scores. Additionally, we request a passport size headshot photo (preferably in color).

HOW TO APPLY

The application process is handled directly through ERAS (the Electronic Residency Application Service). The website is www.aamc.org/audienceeras.htm. Selected applicants will be offered an interview at Memorial Sloan-Kettering. The deadline for applications is May 31.

Requests for additional information about the fellowship program should be directed to: Dennis Chi, M.D., Program Director, Gynecologic Oncology Fellowship, Department of Surgery/ Gynecology Service, Memorial Sloan-Kettering Cancer Center, 1275 York Avenue, New York, NY 10065, 212-639-7537, 212-717-3169 (fax).

FREE RESOURCE FOR RESIDENTS & FELLOWS

Residents and Fellows. It's time to start considering practice opportunities. There are thousands of hospitals and single- and multi-specialty groups with opportunities available for you to consider. How do you find and win exactly the right practice opportunity?

NewPhysician has the answers.

NewPhysician is a free resource that was created to help residents and fellows get the information necessary to make informed choices in their careers. During the past five years, NewPhysician has helped thousands of residents and fellows evaluate opportunities by providing answers to questions like: Will I get to live wherever I wish? What do the compensation surveys indicate I should expect for my specialty? How can I successfully negotiate for help paying off my loans? What are "income guarantees" and how can they benefit me? Will this job be in the type of organization in which I would like to work? Will I get to treat the patients and conditions I want to treat? How often will I have to take call? What hours will I be expected to work? What does each element in a contract mean and how does each apply to my situation? How will I learn the business of medicine, how to successfully operate my practice? What questions should I ask during the interview? When will a decision be expected? Who should mentor me in my first months in my own practice? You're just a call or click away. For more info contact: NewPhysician, (866) 756-0003, www.newphysician.com
